NEW POINT.

The popularity of Mathews as a summer resort is unusually well attested this season. In all sections one sees and hears of the numerous visitors, who are among us; and this neighborhood is entertaining her share. Among the cities represented by visitors here Baltimore takes the lead. We are glad to welcome in our midst, these people who bring with them a large measure of jolly and bright companionship, and believe these visits mutually beneficial to them and to us.

New Point is enjoying a "building boom" the last few months.

The notably handsome

Creek, also Mr. Luther Hudgins on the same side, while on the east side Raymond Hudgins is constructing a large and beautiful house on the model of Wilbur Hudgins elegant new home, "Bright View" at the head of Winter Harbor, into which he and his wife lately moved. John Hudgins, Wesley Ripley and Wm. Jarvis are building additions and otherwise improving their homes. Mr. Edgar Morgan and Calvin Handy are preparing to build also.

Among those visiting the peninsula Fair last week were Capt. John Snow's party from here. They went on the "Dorothy Parsons" to Cape Charles, where they took the train to Tasley, about 40 miles distant. They report a splendid trip and found the Fair a creditable one.

Mrs. Wm. J. Hughes of Newport News visited here on Sunday last.

Little Miss Edna Burroughs returned home Sunday after a two weeks' visit in Newport News.

Hezzie Hudgins and Henry Parks, who have been spending their vacations at home, left last Sunday night to resume their duties in Newport News.
